For Payment. We may use and disclose your health information for purposes of receiving payment for treatment and services that you receive. For example, we may disclose your information to plan health or other payers to determine whether you are enrolled with the payor or eligible for health benefits or to submit claims for payment. The information on our bill may contain information that identifies you, your diagnosis, and treatment or supplies used in the course of treatment. We may provide health information to entities that help us submit bills and collect amounts owed, such as a collection agency.

For Care Coordination. We may use and disclose your health information for treatment, payment or health care operations as described in this notice.

Our Pledge Regarding Health Information

We understand that health information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting health information about you. This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose your health information. It also describes your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of protected health information. We are required to comply with any state laws that offer a patient/member additional privacy protections.

We Are Required By Law To:

Maintain the privacy of health information that identifies you.

Give you and other individuals this notice of our duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information.

Follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect; and

Notify you in the event of a breach involving your unsecured protected health information.

How We May Use And Disclose Your Health Information

For Treatment. We may use and disclose your health information to provide you with medical treatment or services and to coordinate your care. For example, a health care provider, such as a physician, nurse, or other person providing health care services, will access your health information to understand your medical condition and history. To assist in your treatment and care coordination, we may share information with other providers and with accountable care organizations (known as “ACOs”) in which you participate, including notifying them that you have received care from us.

For Payment. We may use and disclose your health information for purposes of receiving payment for treatment and services that you receive. For example, we may disclose your information to plan health or other payers to determine whether you are enrolled with the payor or eligible for health benefits or to submit claims for payment.
